Peace Justice and strong institution

Liaquat University of Medical & Health Sciences (LUMHS) is committed to promoting transparency, accountability, and ethical governance in alignment with Sustainable Development Goal 16 – Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions. The university fosters a culture of integrity and fairness through initiatives that uphold justice, good governance, and responsible conduct within its academic and administrative systems. Through awareness campaigns against corruption, implementation of a comprehensive grievance policy, and adherence to a strong code of conduct, LUMHS ensures that all members of its community operate within a framework of honesty, equality, and respect for human rights, building a foundation for peaceful and inclusive institutional growth.

Anti-Corruption Walk / Awareness Campaigns

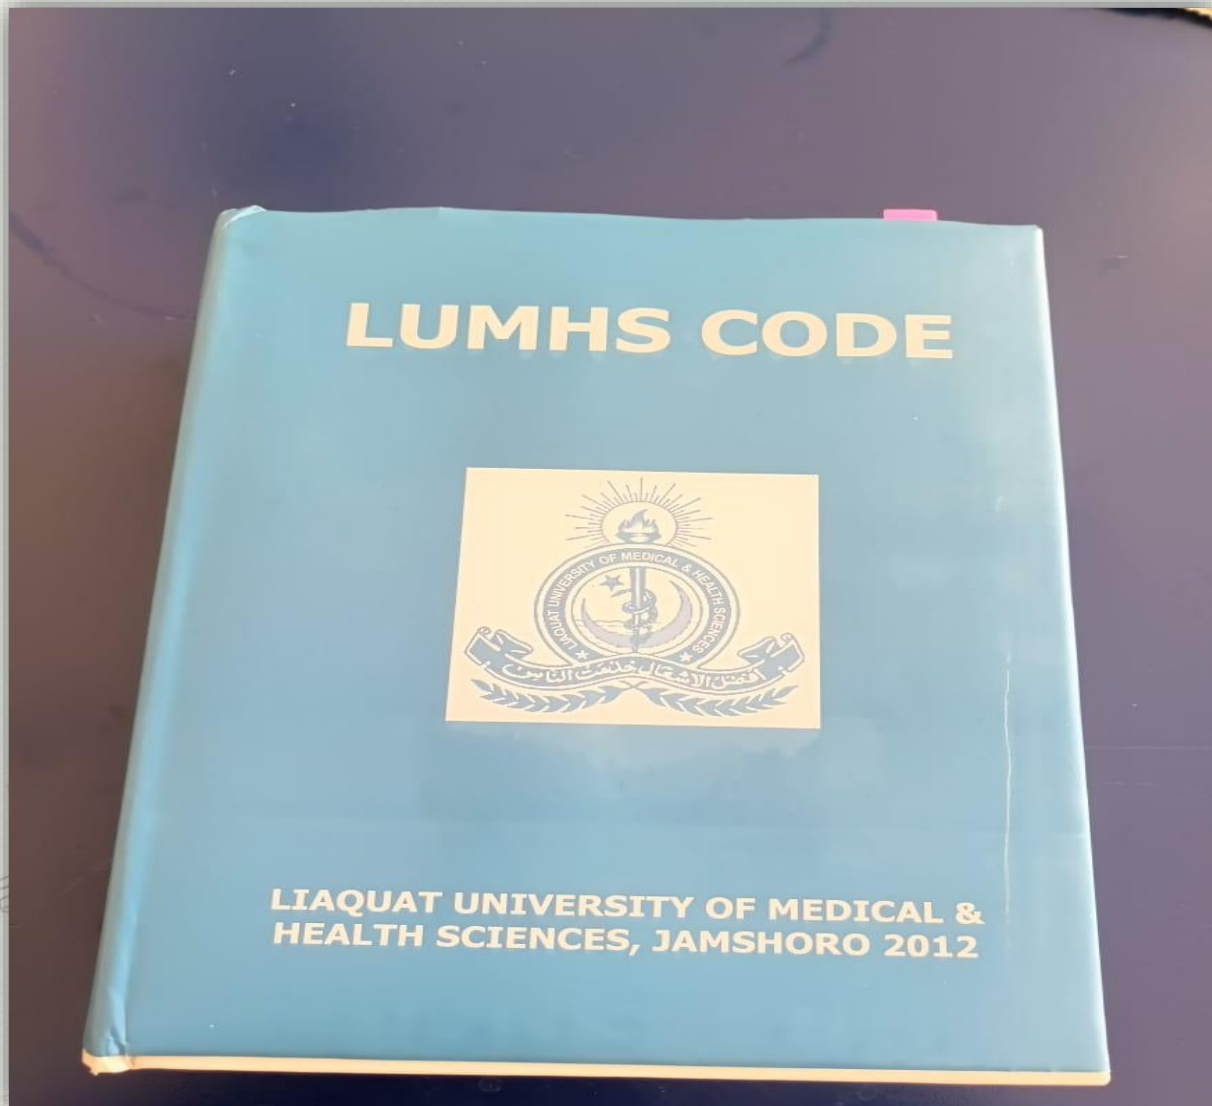

LUMHS management organized a rally / walk to denounce corruption, involving students and faculty, aiming to raise awareness of corruption and promote integrity. These kinds of public awareness efforts help foster a culture of accountability and transparency.

Grievance Policy (Transparency & Accountability Mechanisms)

LUMHS has a Grievance Policy for the Liaquat University of Medical & Health Sciences designed to provide a clear, fair, and respectful mechanism for community members (students, staff) to raise complaints. This contributes to strengthening institutional trust, rights to redress, and procedural justice.

University Code of Conduct

LUMHS has established a comprehensive Code of Conduct Policy that outlines the university's administrative and academic procedures in alignment with national and international laws, rules, and policies. It defines clear standards of ethical behavior and professional conduct, emphasizing values such as respect, integrity, professionalism, and appreciation of diversity. This policy serves as a guiding framework to ensure that all members of the LUMHS community uphold the highest standards of accountability, fairness, and ethical responsibility in their academic and professional pursuits. Implementing a Code of Conduct helps institutions maintain ethical standards and helps reduce conflicts, misconduct, or abuse of power.

Admission Policy with Transparency & Inclusion Provisions

LUMHS has an University Admissions Policy that emphasizes transparency in admissions, clear criteria and procedures, timelines, and includes provisions for applicants with disabilities (reasonable accommodation), and support for underrepresented groups. This helps promote equal access, reduces institutional bias, and fosters inclusive and just treatment for all applicants.

Data Sharing / Research Transparency Policies

Liaquat University of Medical & Health Sciences (LUMHS) ensures transparency and accountability through a well-structured system of policies, activities, and public information dissemination. All institutional policies, including those related to admissions, examinations, finance, quality assurance, research, and governance are made publicly accessible through the official university website.

The website serves as a central platform for sharing updated information regarding academic programs, administrative decisions, public notices, tenders, recruitment, events, and community outreach initiatives. This open-access approach promotes institutional credibility, allows stakeholders to stay informed, and aligns national standards of good governance and public sector transparency.

Through this transparent information system, LUMHS upholds its commitment to integrity, inclusiveness, and continuous improvement in higher education management

LUMHS's through its journals; has a Data Sharing Policy, Editorial Policies, policies on conflict of interest, research ethics, strengthen the integrity of academic research, reproducibility, and trust in scholarly output.
